

CSCI 1300: Final Project:

My project is a Game.

The first step is to choose your storyline. The program will read an IO file from the desired avatar and will read all the necessary words specific for each character throughout your adventure story.

Final Project - Shot of Heroism
Chose your Story by typing avatar and #:

1) Transform the world for the better and become immortal
2) Create a new civilization and be their guardian for knowledge
3) Speak for the people and represent earth in a global alliance
4) Heal the injured and help others become their greatest version
5) Rule a whole nation and lead them towards peace and prosperity
6) Play and perform in the capital of the world with great joy and emotion
7) Hunt the wild beast and save the world from total destruction

Welcome Physician
Here is your Glove of Light

Next. You will have the choice to start an adventure or to open card from the Universe. If you choose to start adventure you will have the choice to battle your demon on your or level up in a word game. The demon you are fighting or location you will be leveling up in depend on your given avatar.

If you choose to Battle your demon. Your goal is to defeat your opponent in an RPG style prompt.

Press (z) to start adventure or Press (x) to open card from Universe
z
Choose your destiny:
a) Battle your Demon
b) Level up in Mage tower

Otherwise, if you choose to open card from the Universe. You will read a text file written IO advice for your specific character.

The screenshot shows a text editor window with a menu bar (File, Edit, Search, View, Document, Help) and a title bar indicating the file path is `*/home/user/Desktop/Final Proj`. The text content of the file is:

You have been blessed with the power to heal.
You are destined to become a great doctor.
Have self-acceptance and do not be resentful or jealous.
